FOREWORD

In this world of prepacked, pre-processed foods, synthetic materials, shifting morals and changing views, it is especially important that we as human beings and citizens of the world at large, come to truly know ourselves. We must know our capabilities and potentialities, and accept with honesty our limitations.

We, the Class of 1968, realize that all pretense must be put aside, as lasting advancement must have the sure and firm foundation of truth.

With this as our resolve, we choose as our class motto:

"Esse Quam Videri"

"To Be Rather Than To Seem"

Mrs. Helen C. Anderson

Good Lady, Great Teacher

OUR SPECIAL SOMEONE

Occasionally good fortune unites us with someone who knows how to lend a hand over the hard places and around blind corners; how to guide us along, gently correcting our wrong turnings, but leaving the main road rightfully ours to choose.

We, the Class of 1968, are indeed fortunate and grateful in that we have found our special someone. Throughout all our years in high school, through eighth grade panic and senior trauma, from joys of being "in the big school" to the tears and heartache of graduation night, we have had someone to stand with us and beside us.

Five years is a long time to put up with a class, but much too short a span to truly know and appreciate a fine friend and advisor.

Realizing out inability to repay in any sense our vast debt, with our deep felt thanks and love, we dedicate this book to. . .

Mrs. Helen C. Anderson.

DR. BENNETT H. PLOTKIN

Some young people regard garduation from secondary school as merely the end of the beginning. I also regard it in this manner. It is also the beginning of a new phase in your lives when what you have learned and lived during the past years must be integrated into a new and responsible young adulthood. I have great faith in the future and particularly in the future of our young people. I hope that each of you also has faith in the future and particularly faith in yourselves—this is of great importance. I feel that you are all young people of great promise—to yourselves and to the world. "Au revoir". We will miss you.

Bennett H. Plotkin

Bennett H. Plotkin
Superintendent

It hardly seems possible that your six years with East Hampton High School have ended. Certainly your alma mater will influence you for the rest of your lives, and you will always honor your school with great love and respect. Try always to remember during your sojourn on earth to do all the good that you possibly can for your fellow man. This will give purpose to your lives. May God always bless you and fill your long lives with good health and happiness.

The Bellringer, one of the school's most active clubs, has increased greatly in membership this year. The Bellringer staff under the advisorship of Mrs. Mulcahy, and the leadership of Laura Hull, has published six issues this year, plus a Town Government Day Supplement.

The purpose of the Bellringer is to print the news as the students see it, following the motto "All the news that fits, we print".

The Bellringer also was able to purchase a Polaroid camera, because of the funds from the Variety Show, so generously given to the newspaper.

Serious business is transacted by the Student Council

Under the able direction of President Bill Johnson along with outstanding representatives, the Student Council had a very successful year. The Council sponsored various assemblies and activities, both educational and entertaining. Town Government Week ran smoothly, movies were shown, a book fair was held for the students at EHHS and elections were held for the next year's officers to the Council. Highlights of the year were the naming of the Athletic field as the Hannah C. Knight Field, the Winter Festival Week and a special assembly and dinner for Mr. Sperry, former advisor to the Council who was leaving to take over the post of principal at Cromwell High. Succeeding him in the job of advisor is Mr. Arcidiacano.

President Bill Johnson and Vice President Elaine Strong are advised by Mr. Sperry

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

L. Burns lights the candle of Character

The major project of this year for the National Honor Society, was the collection of outdated textbooks for Vista. The Society successfully collected many old texts for this purpose and through Vista sent them to schools in Appalachia, or wherever they were needed by underprivileged children. Another project of the Society was the changing of the call board outside of the office.

The highlight of the year was the annual induction of new members which was held this year on February 29. Six new members were inducted who showed strength in the four principals upon which the Society is based – CHARACTER, SCHOLARSHIP, LEADERSHIP, and SERVICE. Dr. George Creeger was the main speaker for this year's induction ceremony.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club of EHHS has become very active this year. The club joined the Chess League this year and has participated in various matches with other schools also in the league.

Officers for the club were: Robert Gahrmann, Pres.; Roland Richardson, Vice-Pres.; Stephen Barney, Sec'y; and Alan Markham, Treasurer.

Under the able Advisorship of Mr. Miller, the Varsity Club sponsored two activities of major importance this year. The first event was a dance to raise funds for the Championship Soccer Team of 1967-68. The other event was raising money for a Memorial Scholarship Fund for EHHS Alumni who gave their lives in Vietnam in the service of their country. Part of the funds that came from a basketball game between the faculties of RHAM H.S. and EHHS H.S. will be used to send interested soccer players to a summer camp for the enrichment of soccer skills.

The High School wishes to thank officers and members for their continued ideals of sportsmanship and humanitarianism.

G.A.A.

With the initiative of Mrs. Porter the GAA was able to sponsor girls interscholastic sports including basketball, baseball, and track. Many girls played and experienced competition and good sportsmanship. Those who participated were honored at an assembly at the end of the year.

Earlier in the year officers were elected and the GAA chose Nancy Knudsen to lead them as their president.

TUMBLING CLUB

As usual, the Tumbling Club was popular and well attended. Members met every X period, warming up with calisthenics and then splitting up into groups to work out on their favorite gym equipment. The members enjoyed the enthusiasm and guidance of their advisors Mr. Jones and Mrs. Porter.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

This year has been a most successful one for the Girls' Basketball team. The girls worked hard practicing after school and their hard work was worthwhile when they won their first two games. Under the guidance of their hard working coach, Mrs. Porter, the girls stuck together and never lost their determination. Their spirit and good sportsmanship was never doubted. We hope the teams of the future will do the same.

GUITAR CLUB

A new club was formed this year under the direction of Mr. DiStefano. The Guitar Club consisted of individuals with various talents. Mr. DiStefano helped teach those unfamiliar with the instrument to play folk guitar and taught them several folk songs. The group participated in the Spring Festival along with the Band and Chorus.

ART CLUB

This year, under the direction of Mrs. Guy, the Art Club made a 15-minute color film, a satire on the evening news.

Townspeople were impressed with the Art Club's Spring Art Exhibit. They purchased numerous objects of art made by club members.

POETRY CLUB

The Poetry Club was started the last week of January with six members. Mr. Brady, as advisor, helped them in the publication of four editions of "Interfusion." When they weren't working on another edition, they studied contemporary poetry. They also sponsored a series of poetry readings.

SOCIAL SERVICE

1st ROW; L. to R., T. Pratt, A. Hecht, K. Hazen, M. Rousseau; 2nd ROW; L. Barrett, Mr. Smiley, M. Bishop

The Social Service Club was a new club started this year and advised by Mr. Smiley. Its purpose was to learn about the various aspects of social work. The members, in conjunction with the nursing club, heard a lecture on mental retardation, and went on a field trip to the Newington Children's Hospital.

FNA

With Mrs. Carruthers as advisor, the Future Nurses received guidance in planning their careers and in learning of available opportunities in the field of nursing. They visited both Middlesex and Hartford Hospitals and also had a field trip to the Newington Hospital for Crippled Children with the Social Service Club.

The Club conducted several projects in conjunction with Rest Haven Convalescent Home. Included were periodic visits with the patients, distribution of valentines and an afternoon of entertainment, with Yong Sun Choi playing her musical saw.

FTA

1st ROW; L. to R., I. Dickenson, C. Hastings, C. Brack, G. Gates; 2nd ROW; M. Dixon, K. Barney, P. Ellis, J. Magnano, P. Phillips, Mr. James

The Future Teachers of America has been extremely active this year. They began by sponsoring a Faculty Tea for the purpose of discussing teaching and college possibilities. A tutoring program was started for the first time in which members of the club tutored students in all three school levels.

Another achievement was the establishment of the Viet-Nam Memorial Scholarship Fund. The club sponsored a benefit basketball game and other activities to raise money for this worthy cause.

AFRO-ASIAN CLUB

1st ROW; L. to R., S. Wilson, P. Witherspoon, H. Riley, R. Read, M. Choiniere; 2nd ROW; C. Reeves, D. Atwood, W. Reeves, Mr. Smiley, C. O'Neil, J. Warmsley, D. Warmsley, G. O'Neil, N. Stack

Another new club this year was the Afro-Asian Society which was started by Hope Riley, President, and advised by Mr. Smiley. Its purpose was to discuss the problems and background of the Negro race and to try to find solutions to racial problems today. Their activities included a showing of various films and a taping of Dick Gregory's speech. Current articles were discussed and a debate sponsored. This club is sure to be a success in future years if the present enthusiasm continues.

STOCKS AND BONDS

The Stocks and Bonds Club continued to promote interest in the complex workings of the American Stock Exchange. Club members learned first-hand of the frustration of investing imaginary money in stocks of their choice.

KNITTING CLUB

L. to R., T. Jennings, N. DiMauro, S. Markham, Mrs. Anderson, Advisor; B. Feist, B. Stickler, L. Cheney, C. Wright

Mrs. Anderson directed her members to knit mittens for the "Needy" and gave them out at Christmas.

Knitters finished the year making scarfs, hats, head bands and sweaters for themselves.

This club was started last year and meets once a week to keep up their skills.

BOATING CLUB

Mr. Birdsall advised this club again this year. Members met outside of school to discuss navigation and other aspects of boating and saw movies of special interest.

Their big project was the building of an ice-boat in Mr. Culbert's cellar. The support and help of both teachers were greatly appreciated.

ASTRONOMY CLUB

This year was another very successful one for this club. Several lectures were given by D. Rose, President.

Putting in much hard work and time-consuming efforts, members were able to build a ten inch Newtonian reflector to study the galaxies and variable stars.

Senior Powder & Puff

The Senior Powder and Puff Club began its twenty-ninth year with a smashing success performance of "Harvey". The play was directed by Mr. James Stoughton.

The members once again demonstrated their varied acting abilities in the Christmas play, "A Certain Star" directed by Mr. Gerald Long.

Whit Fielding and M. Beth Maton starred in "Harvey" and K. Talbert starred in "A Certain Star".

National Thespian Society

The National Thespian Society, an honorary society, was organized for the advancement of dramatic arts in secondary schools throughout the country. Eligibility for membership consists of working in plays for at least 100 hours.

The Society received its Charter and Troupe number, 1704, in 1956. All members receive the "Dramatics" magazine.

In the 67-68 dramatics season, the Junior Powder and Puff displayed an outstanding amount of acting ability.

In an afternoon assembly, under the direction of Mrs. Dimmock, the eighth grade put on "True Blue and Trusted," which proved again that good always triumphs over evil.

Mr. Fomento came through once more when the Freshmen presented "The Shock of His Life." It was a hilarious misunderstanding of the kind so typical in the "average American home."

With such up and coming talent, the future looks extremely well for E.H.H.S. dramatics.

John Treat fears death, but his family offers no sympathy in "The Shock of His Life".

The villain in "True Blue and Trusted" is dead, and all is well.

VARIETY SHOW

It seems as though EHHS has one more annual event. The Second Variety Show was approved with great enthusiasm and it was the unbiased opinion of all that it was the greatest show yet. Brian Smith, M.C.'d the show and added much to its enjoyment.

B. Smith, M.C. of the Variety Show, stands speechless at the audience's applause

K. Barney shows off her talents, playing a medley of popular songs

B. Smith finds that M.C.ing is a treacherous business as a desperate woman (J. Barton) loses her self-control

D. Krasnitski and M. Larkin sing a duet during their original Western skit

D. Whitmore does her interpretation of "Thoroughly Modern Milly"

H. Riley sings the blues; "What are you gonna do when I'm gone?"

"HARVEY"

Hard work, a superior cast, and expert directing gave the Senior Powder and Puff another feather in their hat with the superb production of "Harvey". The play dealt with an invisible rabbit, Harvey, and his effects on the lives of such people as Veta Louise Simmons (Mary Beth Maton), Elwood P. Dowd (W. Fielding), Myrtle Mae (J. Carstenson) and Dr. Chumley (R. K. Turner). It received much praise and was enjoyed by all.

Dr. Chumley (R. Turner) and Judge Omar Gaffney (W. Naughton) discuss the startling Dowd case

Elwood P. Dowd (W. Fielding) spins tales of his latest cocktail parties for Mrs. Chumley (G. White)

Nurse Kelly (C. Clark) and Dr. S. Sanderson (R. Knotek) engage in a heated argument over the disappearance of Veta Louise

Mrs. Chauvenet (C. Creeger) has a friendly visit with Veta Louise (M. Maton) and Myrtle Mae (J. Carstensen)

Following her narrow escape from Chumley's Rest, Judge Gaffney and Myrtle Mae help Veta Louise to a chair

Solemn and joyful Christmas melodies added to the theme

A unique theme dramatizes the Christmas Pageant with the opposing characters of the blind and evil Old Woman (K. Talbert), quiet, prophesying Esther (N. Rutty), innocent Ruth (L. Strong), jovial Merchant (B. Smith), and cruel, deceptive Dismas (J. Edwards).

Fittingly ending with the revelation to the Old Woman of her sins, the play's strength and effect was enforced with the quality acting of the players and accompaniment of a choral presentation and band directed by Mr. DiStefano and narration of the Noel Cantata by G. White.

The Old Woman (K. Talbert) casts an evil eye on the audience

Mr. Distefano leads the chorus

G. White narrates during the choral presentation

Trumpeters harmonize

Ruth (L. Strong) and Esther (N. Rutty) find comfort in the kitten

Dismas (J. Edwards) suffers over the death of the Old Woman

The merchant's (B. Smith) life is threatened by the thieving Dismas

CROSS COUNTRY

Three Shut-Outs Boost Spirits

This year the East Hampton Harriers left their mark on the school athletic history, chalking up a record 5 wins and 3 losses. Directed by Coach Dan Jones and driven to success by Co-Captains Rollie Richardson and Bob Gahrmann, the team achieved their first shutout ever, against Rocky Hill. After this milestone, they easily accomplished the feat twice more against Bacon and Durham.

Leading the pack through most of the meets were Seniors, Rollie Richardson, Bill Yates, and Bob Gahrmann. But also important were the strong individual performances of underclassmen Ricky Knudsen, Bill Moll, and Wayne Benoit who took vital places in scoring the wins. These underclassmen give a good indication of a bright future on the cross country course.

Highlighting the year was the state meet at New Britain, where the Eastie runners placed fourth.

Taking team honors was Wayne Benoit who came in eleventh out of a field of 137. Those placing in compiling a team total of 139 points were Bill Yates – 16, Rollie Richardson – 20, and Bob Gahrmann – 33.

Barry Richardson and Dennis Whitty make a good showing for our cross country team.

SOCCER

Seniors Lead to Conference Win

This year's soccer team, coached by Mr. Miller, won two trophies with the ease of professionals.

With an 11 - 0 - 1 conference record the team walked away with the C.O.C. trophy. We were the only undefeated team in the conference.

Being undefeated we also got the Big Three Trophy. This trophy represents the best team of the year in the schools of Bacon Academy, RHAM, and East Hampton High. This trophy has been out of our school only once since its existence.

We had little trouble holding our opponents down to 12 goals with our fast backfield. Hustle was the team's theme, and hustle we did, with our fast backfield of Co-captain Whitney Fielding, Bruce Strong, Walter Lyman and goalie, Bill Reeves.

Our offense proved to be equally good as we scored 39 goals overall. Leading in the goal department was co-captain Bill Johnson with 15 goals. Bill was just one off the previous record.

Easties Qualify State Tourney

Our 1968 Soccer team, with an 11–0–1 record qualified, with ease for the state tournament.

Ranked a strong second, we opened against Canton. This proved to be little challenge for our team, as we got a 2–1 lead and held it with ease.

Our next game, against Lebanon, was one of the most exciting ever played in the tourney. Tied at 0–0 with seventeen seconds to go in the second overtime, John "Big—Toe" Edwards smashed one into the nets to being us to a 1–0 victory and qualifying us for the semi-finals.

In our third tourney game we met Litchfield on a snow-covered field on a cold, windy day. This day proved to be colder than expected as we lost a 2–1 hard fought battle.

Doug Rittman kicks around opponent as if he weren't there.

John Edwards skillfully brings the ball down the field.

BASKETBALL

Coach Jones gives advise during a short time out

High Spirits Reign

Though the Basketball team ended the season winless, their hustle and desire was equal to any other sport in the school this year. Under the direction of Mr. Jones, the team brought "finesse" into high school basketball and often amazed their opponents with its successful application.

This year's team was led by Seniors Bill Johnson, who was high scorer, Whit Fielding and Jim McKinney, the two rebounders, and playmakers Bruce Strong and Rick Ocelik.

Sophomore Bo Lyman is a good prospect for the future. Bo started in many of the games at the end of last season and proved in J.V. play that he could lead his team to victory.

This summer, Bo Lyman, Craig Stringer, and Doug Rittman will have the advantage of going to basketball camp in Durham, Connecticut. Half of the cost will be paid by town businessmen and the Varsity Club.

BASEBALL

The 1967 baseball team, coached by Mr. Poulin, turned in another successful season.

The team finished with a 10–4 record romping over every team in the conference at least once.

Tieing Bolton in the opening game of the season didn't downcast our boys at all as they bounced back to defeat Bolton 19–11 and 4–3 in return games.

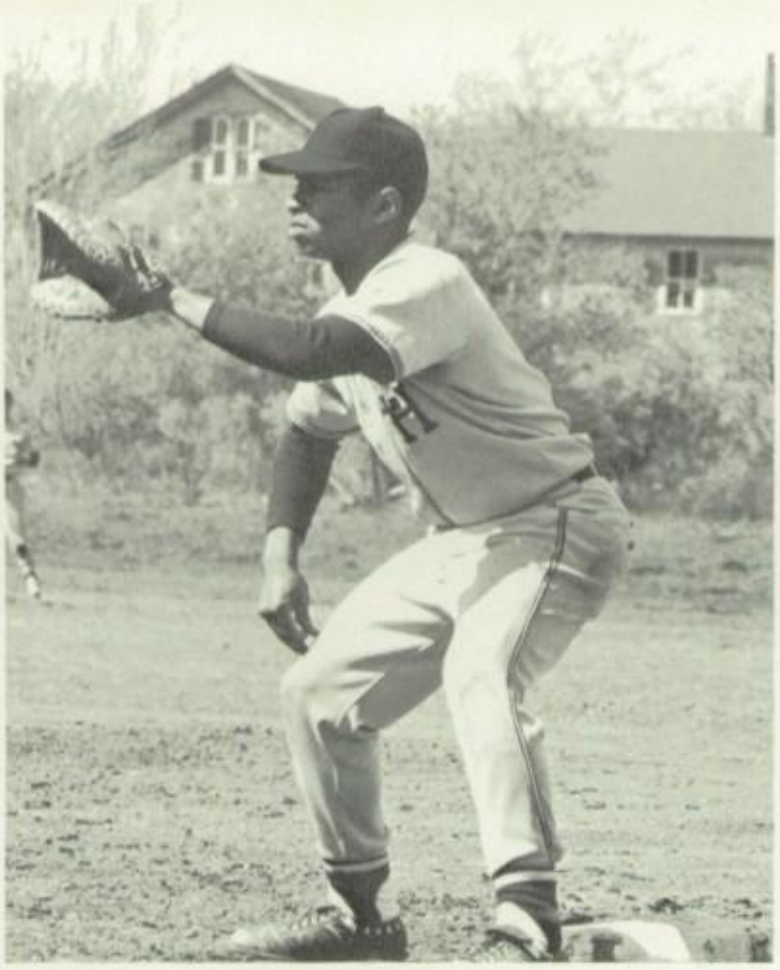
The hitting was very good; the outstanding batters being Roger McKinney, Dave Swan, Rick Ocelik, and Bruce Strong. All were hitting far above .250.

Our defense was good, also, with the following players stopping many possible runs; first, Paul Stringer, second, Bill Johnson, third, Bruce Strong, short, John Edwards, fielders, Steve Kissinger, George Sharpe, and Ken Hallberg.

Qualifying for the tourney, we lost our first game against Woodstock.

The team has a very bright future with seven juniors returning next year.

Coach Poulin advises George Sharpe, in an important play.



First baseman Paul Stringer awaits the ball.

TRACK

Individual Performances Strong

Despite fine individual performances, the East Hampton track team, coached by Mr. Myers, ended their season with a 1-7 record. Senior captain, Joe Visinski, led the field as he excelled in the shot put, discus, and 440 dash.

Three school records were broken this year. Joe Visinski broke the shot put record with a toss of 49'3". Ron Young and Judd Tedford both broke the previous pole vaulting record with a jump of 10 ft. each, and Rollie Richardson broke the previous two mile record with a run of 11:10. The rest of the team also worked hard, and the future looks bright for our track team with six lettermen returning next year.

CHEERLEADERS

East Hampton cheerleaders show fine form in a popular cheer.

Cheerleaders Boost Team Morale

This year's group of Cheerleaders have set the stage for excitement and electricity among the EHHS fans. Led by their Advisor, Miss Dean and Co-Captains S. Lawson and N. Knudsen, they held up the team's spirits. They also led many pep rallies, made Booster Buttons, and spread good will throughout the school.

When Soccer ended, they were feted at Marlborough Tavern to a tasty banquet for their splendid efforts and enthusiasm.

Vicki, Chris, Ellen and Linda put enthusiasm into "rocket cheer".

Senior Class Officers and Advisors

Arriving at East Hampton High School as seventh graders after the tragic fire, we, the Class of 1968, were faced with the confusion and crowded conditions of double sessions. Going to school from twelve until five posed no insurmountable difficulties, however, as we soon adapted to the strange and often bewildering changes in atmosphere and expected behavior. There we first met Mr. Ferrigno and ciphers, Student Council and elected officers, rotating periods and the "big kids". Officers for that important first year were Bill Johnson, President; Melanie Dixon, Vice President; Kathy Becker, Treasurer; Janice Fielding, Secretary.

In the fall of 1963, we entered the newly constructed high school, the first class to spend the full five years here. Though somewhat in awe of our new surroundings, with our activities limited to clubs and Student Council, we demonstrated a budding class unity and a willingness to learn. Class officers for that year were Bill Johnson, President; Dudley Mulcahy, Vice President; Nancy Rutty, Secretary; Ricky Ocelik, Treasurer.

Our Freshman year began with the election of the officers who would lead us through the first formal year of high school. They were: Whit Fielding, President; Dave Pessoni, Vice President; Sandy Lawson, Secretary; Kathy Becker, Treasurer. It was a most successful year for the class as could be seen in our Freshman Frolic, "English Pub". Sue Chapone was Queen, attended by Sherry Rich and Sandy Lawson.

The excitement of participation in the magazine campaign started off our Sophomore year. Our first attempt at salesmanship showed such drive and spirit that we were able to give the Juniors and Seniors some tough competition.

A second big event was "Fall Festival," the Sophomore Hop held late in November. Laura Whitty reigned as Queen, with attendants Sue Guilbeault and Jean Barton, over the beautiful autumn splendor. Our officers for the year were Whit Fielding, President; Bill Johnson, Treasurer; Rick Ocelik, Secretary.

S. Guilbeault, K. Becker, G. White and K. Barney are shown as sophomores in Mr. Sullivan's English class

In the fall of 1966, we entered the rather bewildering world of upperclassmen. But we quickly got the lay of the land, and proved ourselves worthy in every way. Early autumn took us to Sturbridge Village, and February brought our Junior Prom. "Shangri-la" wove its magic for a night in East Hampton. Sue Guilbeault was crowned Queen; attendants, Sandy Lawson and Janice Fielding.

The year ended with the election of our representatives to Laurel Girls' State and Nutmeg Boys' State. Sandy Lawson, Janice Fielding, Bill Johnson, John Edwards, Kenny Hallberg, Rollie Richardson, Jay Cornelio, Rick Ocelik and Whit Fielding carried our school banner to Storrs, and East Hampton certainly made an indelible impression on the proceedings.

Officers for our Junior year were: Don Rittman, President; Jean Barton, Vice President; Barb Devio, Secretary; Elaine Strong, Treasurer.

Returning to EHHS for the last time in 1967, we realized that our high school days were numbered and that graduation would soon be at hand. But we soon became so involved with the rush of Senior activities that we were left with little time for either reminiscing or worrying about the future.

The magazine campaign, led by Donnie Rittman and Rollie Richardson was a greater success than even we had expected. With the invaluable help of the Sophomore and Junior classes we collected a total of $8000.

Country Store planning and collecting started in the latter part of summer vacation, continuing on through September and October. All the work and effort was more than rewarded on October 29, when our class brought in $2700, the largest profit ever achieved. Scott West, Rick Ocelik and Jay Cornelio led the class to our great success. The funds from the Country Store helped us to get to Washington in the spring, adding yet another good time to those we shared.

During the November soccer season seniors composed the bulk of the team which won the Charter Oak Conference Class C championship. December 18 brought our Christmas dinner at the Yankee Silversmith in Wallingford. Adding to the festive air, Santa paid a visit with a big bag of presents for all, and a kiss for each good girl.

The advent of spring found us already deep in preparations for our Washington trip. Finally on April 2 we set off for the Capitol, a trip which is one of EHHS oldest and, understandably, most anticipated and enjoyed traditions. After the four-day tour of sight-seeing and late hours, we returned home exhausted, but with warm memories of the places and people we'd seen; of dancing, Set-Back and Keepin' the line movin'.

"For one brief shining moment there was Camelot." The days and ways of King Arthur and Queen Gueniviere returned for one night in May this year. The Senior Ball, "Camelot" was held amid the splendors and chivalry of the "days of yore." Never can we forget the beauty of the night.

Then came June and with it the bustle of Senior week and graduation preparations; the picnic and class night rushed by in a blur. Finally on June 20, we, the Class of 1968, held our commencement, the ending and beginning of so much.

And now we're "big kids" ourselves, with the good times and responsibilities that go with this distinction. We've come a long way, and we realize that there is still so far to go and so much to learn. Soon we will leave EHHS for "once and final", but we will take with us always precious memories and skills.

This humble attempt can never do justice to our history. Our poor efforts can never capture the flavor and style of twelve years together. The true and real story is beyond the scope of this or any book, the true story is written on our hearts.

The highlight of our Junior year was our Junior Prom. The Queen, S. Guilbeault is shown with her court S. Lawson and J. Fielding

In 1966, juniors held lead parts in "The Mouse That Roared." Duchess Gloriana (J. Barton) and Councellor (B. Smith) discuss pending matters of state in this scene

GOODNESS

Came To East Hampton

"You wrote the paper in Korean!" Mr. Pete learns the joys of a foreign student

Goodness came to East Hampton High School this year in the form of a short, dark-haired girl. She is Yong Sun Choi, whose name means "goodness" in Korean. She has the honor of being the first exchange student at East Hampton High; but, we hope, not the last. Her coming was the result of much effort on the part of the ~~the~~ Student Council, Board of Education, and the East Hampton Clergymen. One of hundreds of young people sponsored by the International Christian Youth Exchange, Yong Sun arrived from the Republic of Korea on July 8, 1967, to live for one year with her host family, Mr. & Mrs. George K. White. After a brief orientation in Philadelphia, she became another member of their family and a real "East Hamptonian".

Although she had completed only half of her junior year at Ewha Girls' High School, Yong Sun joined the senior class and graduated with them in June. Her subjects were varied – chorus, typing, English, chemistry, P. D., gym, and art. Although English was a "foreign language" to her, she was able to overcome her difficulties and maintain a strong B average for the year. Other activities in which she participated were the Variety Show in which she demonstrated her native dance, the FNA, Oracle, Country Store, Girls' Basketball, and other church and community affairs.

"Sunny", a nickname she soon acquired because of our difficulty with the Korean tongue, fit her personality also. She told jokes in chemistry class with as much ease as she discussed world problems in P. D. Her taste in Italian foods was the cause of much teasing, and you could usually find her in the lunch line on spaghetti days. In the beginning Sunny found it hard to eat in time, being used to much longer lunch periods but soon this became just another adjustment she had to make. Mr. Birdsall became well-known as "Mr. Birdsar" her name for him. Her good-natured laugh and pleasant smile was the source of pleasure to all at EHHS.

Yong Sun plans to go to college after completing her schooling in Korea, and may someday become a nurse. Her father is a doctor, and her mother a professor of nursing in a college. She has one brother and three sisters, one of whom lives in Ohio.

We, the Class of 1968, are very grateful of all those who made it possible for Yong Sun to spend this year with us. We have been much enriched by this experience and know we will never forget the memorable days she gave to us.

We the omniscent, omnipotent, omniverous, benevolent, bewildered Oracle Staff of 1968, do hereby bequeath with all due humility, contrition, devotion and joy, the duties which this year we have so faithfully and ecstatically pursued to the eager, expectant Class of 1969. It is our moral certitude that they will carry on with our gallant, and glorious tradition, extolling forever, the virtues and idiosyncracies of our beloved East Hampton High.

On behalf of the Student Council and the entire student body, I wish to congratulate the graduating class of 1968. Through the years, they have produced a climate of friendly perfection for which they will never be forgotten.

I sincerely hope that all the goals you wish to reach in the future may be attained as well as were those in the past.

Sincerely,

William Johnson
